

CULTURE DAYS PROGRAMMING

September 30, october 1 & 2, 2022

Les journées
de la culture

ville.rosemere.qc.ca

ROSEMÈRE
Vivre Fleurir Grandir • Live Blossom Grow

An evening of tales and legends

An evening for the whole family... tales and legends not to be missed! Francis Désilets will bring back to life the best traditional tales of the time, mixed with history and songs. The storyteller invites you to travel in his world where traditional tales become living ones.

- Traditional repertoire of tales, legends and songs
- Post-show discussion with the storyteller
- Presentation of the origins and explanations of the tales and legends

Date: Friday, September 30

Time: Time: 7 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Location: Recreation Department lawn, 325 Grande-Côte Road
(inside Sainte-Françoise-Cabrini church in case of bad weather)

Library gone wild!

A festive afternoon for the whole family... not to be missed! Come and discover our program for the fall and winter. Video game tournament, introduction to ceramics, popcorn, board games, chess and history club, a draw and many other surprises in store!

Date: Saturday, October 1

Time: noon - 4 p.m.

Location: H.-J.-Hemens Library, 339 Grande-Côte Road

Floreat en arts

The art project Floreat en arts, organized by the Regroupement des artistes de Rosemère (RAR) in collaboration with the Town of Rosemère, allows artists to create a unique work in front of the public.

Date: Sunday, October 2

Time: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Location: Charbonneau Park

Luce Dufault in concert

Luce Dufault's show Dire combien je t'aime is a follow-up to her album of the same name, giving her a chance to present a new show in a very intimate setting. Accompanied by three musicians, her outstanding voice will shine through the highlights of her vast repertoire as well as songs from her new album.

Date: Sunday, October 2

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Salle Lévis-Fortier at Externat Sacré-Cœur
535, Lefrançois Street

Tickets on sale for $40 (450 621-3500, extension 7221 or 7380).